Dear Parents / Carers,

WORLD
DAY

MARCH 2023

World Book Day

We have really enjoyed celebrating the children's favourite books today. Reading is at the heart of the curriculum at Northbourne, and we love taking the time to pause and enjoy quality texts with the children.

This morning all of the children and staff enjoyed a storytelling session. The pupils were able to choose a story to hear, delivered by a mystery member of staff. The children headed off to different corners of the school to listen to:

- The Troll – read by Miss Bradley
- Mrs Armitage on Wheels – read by Mrs Atkinson
- Rocketmole – read by Mrs Cavell
- When Ice-Cream That Had a Meltdown – read by Miss Scott
- Little Red Riding Hood – read by Miss Roberts
- The Tunnel – read by Mrs Heath
- The Smartest Giant in Town – read by Miss Bones
- Charlie Cook's Favourite Book – read by Mr Martin
- The Wolf Who Cried Boy – read by Miss Cooper

Please remember that your child will bring home their £1 world book day voucher today. This can be redeemed in book stores for one of this year's special world book day books (see the list below) alternatively the £1 voucher can be used to save £1 off any book of your choice at a book shop.
